Customize and prioritize

The addition of partitions enhance the sense of privacy when used in open areas. Monitor walls can be mounted to any existing Bridges II workstation, creating “shared media” solutions.
Create an environment for collaborative teamwork that facilitates the connection of people and ideas. Partitions between workstations allow for more independent work when required. Bridges II’s modular design allows you to easily expand your workspace.

Redefine how you sit and share

Bridges II Seating and Collaborative Enhancements: A highly flexible collection of lounge seating, privacy screens, tables and power. Seating elements can be linked together within a run of Bridges II tables, or as freestanding pieces – allowing the product to be used in open plan, reception or team areas.
